WELCOME LETTER

FROM BASEBALL AUSTRALIA

On behalf of Baseball Australia, I would like to extend a warm welcome to players, staff, officials, volunteers and supporters to the 2022 Australian Women's Baseball Showcase in Geelong.

It shapes as an exciting four days of baseball as we build on last year's historic Showcase with more teams, players and games.

After a tough couple of years it is great that we're back to playing the game we all love and return to Geelong for the first time in a while.

We encourage you to get out and explore all of this beautiful region has to offer when you're not at the ballpark!

I'd like to thank the Adelaide Giants and Brisbane Bandits for their ongoing commitment to women's baseball in Australia and welcome Victoria Aces aboard for their first Showcase.

It is also important to recognise the ongoing support of baseball from the Victorian Government and also the City of Greater Geelong, as well as the contribution from the local community in ensuring the event is a success.

The ongoing support of Kayo Sports to our sport is also a major win and great news for fans they can watch all seven games this weekend from anywhere across Australia.

We'd also like to acknowledge the support of WBSC, Baseball Canada, Baseball Federation of Japan and USA Baseball has given us the opportunity to welcome some star imports and to broadcast the event across the world.

GLENN WILLIAMS

Chief Executive Officer, Baseball Australia

WELCOME LETTER

FROM CITY OF GREATER GEELONG

It is a pleasure to welcome the Australian Women's Baseball Showcase to the City of Greater Geelong.

In recent years Geelong has become somewhat of a baseball hub thanks to the wonderful facilities at the Geelong Baseball Centre, as well as our own team competing in the Australian Baseball League.

It is because of this that I am confident the Geelong community will be out in force to support and encourage some of the country's best female baseballers in action in the coming days.

The past two years have presented many challenges to everyone, but to be in a position now to enjoy competitive sport again, with crowds full of friends and family members supporting participants, is so wonderful.

This event has been made possible thanks to the support of the City of Greater Geelong Council's community events grants program.

Major events play such a vital role in reaffirming and expanding our city's profile as they draw new and returning visitors to the region to support our local economy and enhance our reputation as a welcoming and inclusive city.

For those of you who may be new to Geelong, I encourage you to explore our many attractions as there truly is something for everyone.

This was backed up recently when the 100 Most Loved Destinations Around the World for 2021 was released, with the Bellarine taking out 25th spot and Geelong the 69th spot.

But I know the focus will be on baseball, and to all the competitors, I wish you the very best for your events and hope you enjoy a wonderful week in our beautiful city.

Enjoy!

CR TRENT SULLIVAN

Deputy Mayor, City of Greater Geelong

EXPANDED SHOWCASE SET TO HIT GEEELONG

Three teams, four days and seven games. The Australian Women's Showcase is back bigger and better in 2022. All eyes will be on Geelong when Australia's best - and some top-level imports - go head-to-head representing the Adelaide Giants, Brisbane Bandits and Victoria Aces.

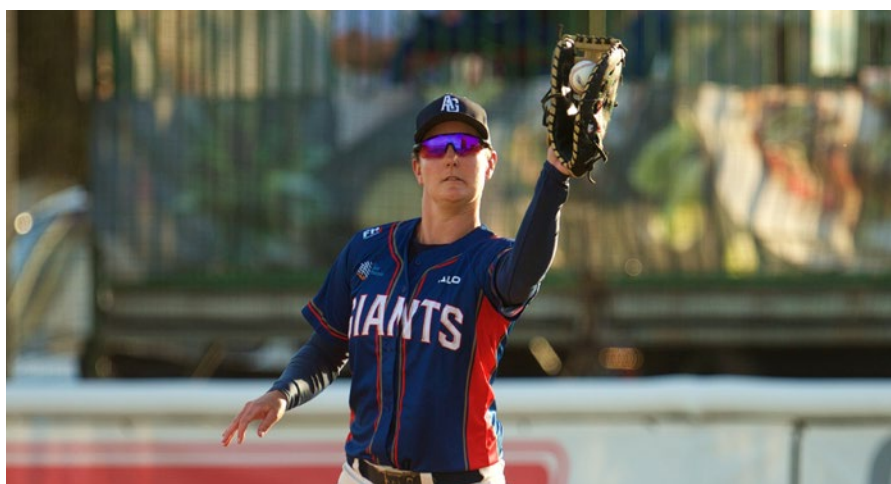

Twelve months after the historic first Australian Women's Baseball Showcase in Adelaide, the event is back bigger and better in Geelong.

The Victoria Aces will enter the fold - joining the Adelaide Giants and Brisbane Bandits - and seven imports have been added to the rosters to give our Australian talent a chance to compete against the best.

More teams means more opportunities for Aussies too.

Plenty of long-time Emeralds stars will feature in Geelong, including eight-time World Cup representative Shae Lillywhite.

At the other end there will be a stack of young talent, including a number of players who earned their spot in Geelong following impressive showings at last month's Australian Women's Baseball Championship in Adelaide.

Ten members of the New South Wales gold medal winning roster in Adelaide have been named across the rosters for the Bandits and Giants.

Victoria's roster includes 12 players from their silver medal run at the women's nationals, which including a perfect 6-0 opening round.

It all shapes to provide a massive four days of action in Geelong.

A total of seven games will be played with each team playing four opening round clashes.

The top two teams after three days will face off in Sunday's decider from 12.05pm.

It is hard to pick a standout team with so much talent spread across the board and a number of plyers emerging from nationals to book their spot on a showcase roster.

If last year's showcase - where four games were split between Adelaide and Brisbane - is a guide it will be a hard-fought weekend.

The showcase is an important step towards a professional women's baseball league in Australia.

COVID stalled the launch of the league but the showcase provides the ability for the top talent in the country to go head-to-head.

Once again it will be broadcast by Kayo Sports, showcasing high-level baseball not only to existing fans but new fans and helping to inspire a new generation of talent.

The showcase is supported by the Victorian Government through its Significant Sporting Events Program. City of Greater Geelong is also supporting the event through its community events grants.

"The Australian Women's Showcase was a great success in 2021, and the support from the Victorian Government will allow us to build of that momentum as we continue to edge closer to a sustainable and successful professional women's baseball league in Australia," Baseball Australia chief executive Glenn Williams said when the event was announced.

GEELONG

THE MORE YOU EXPLORE, THE MORE THERE IS TO LOVE

Whether you are a first-time visitor or back for a 50th time, there is plenty to see and do in Geelong when you're away from the ballpark.

When visiting Geelong, the Waterfront is a good place to start.

The outlook over Corio Bay is a wonderful side dish to the vast number of places to eat and drink. It's also an ideal backdrop for a casual walk or taking in one of the range of events held in the vicinity throughout the year.

You shouldn't stop at the Waterfront though. Within just a couple of blocks to the south there's an entire cultural precinct featuring Geelong Gallery and an ever-more-impressive schedule of exhibitions and the Geelong Arts Centre which is currently being transformed into one of the best creative and performance spaces in the country.

The Geelong Library and Heritage Centre is so breathtakingly impressive it'll convince non-readers to pick up a book while the National Wool Museum is sharing important stories and impressive non-wool events too.

Little Malop Street and surrounds has become the go-to place at meal times. Eateries with interesting menus and dedicated service alongside venues dedicated to the experience of drinking and a sprinkling of really fun live entertainment make it a thoroughly great night out.

Further afield there are some brilliant precincts. Pakington Street – Pako to locals – is a well balanced mix of eating out, quality fresh goods retail and boutique shopping. Fyansford has emerged from a forgotten riverside spot to a mix of experiences in historic and captivating surrounds. There are restaurant treasures and great retail experiences in suburban Geelong areas like Belmont, Highton and East Geelong.

The more you explore Geelong, the more there is to love.

DRINK IT IN

When it comes to unique, award-winning, and reputable locally-made beer, wine, and spirits, look no further than Geelong's own - made, bottled and sourced right on the shores and surrounds of Corio Bay. On equal measure are the wineries, wine bars, cocktail bars, gin bars and breweries that serve these fine drops.

There's a world of choice on offer on Geelong's doorstep. Go home with lasting memories of Geelong's burgeoning and fine establishments. Cheers to that!

There are brilliant things cooking below the big chimney at the Federal Mills in North Geelong. Anther Gin Distillery is passionately bottling their curiosity in their working distillery. Spirit lover or adventurous at heart, try the local flavours and native ingredients of this craft gin cellar door.

Little Creatures Village, in an old, restored Woollen Mill, not only is the brewery distributing Little Creatures to the Australian East Coast (and tours are available!), but there's also The Canteen with casual food and brews and the White Rabbit Barrel Hall with craft beer and bites.

Provenance Wines (pictured above) cellar door and winery is the main space in the restored building at the Old Paper Mills site, with bluestone walls and cathedral ceilings, the tasting experience of guided wine and food matches for six or eight courses is recommended, along with their award-winning Geelong wines.

Blackman's Brewery Geelong – super fresh beer made right here in the region, straight from the source – the tanks – to you. Family owned, learn more with a brewery tour.

The 18th Amendment Bar – this captivating 1930's speakeasy bar is hidden above the Little Malop Street shops and the staff are experts in liquor and can find a match for your tastes from their lonnng list of cocktails and mixed drinks.

Geelong Cellar Door – featuring the best wine from vineyards across the Geelong region, walls of Geelong wine at your fingertips and perfectly portioned charcuterie boards. In the heart of Little Malop Street Black Sheep Chamber of Gin – many combinations of drinks and cocktails starring gin from five distilleries in Geelong and on the nearby coast. Adjacent to the National Wool Museum.

HIDDEN TREASURES

It's not just our big city neighbour up the road that champions laneway fine food establishments. Geelong packs a punch when it comes to eateries and drink venues that rise above and is only growing in reputation and variety for taste and innovation.

Little Malop Street is the corridor of cosmopolitan cuisine and its offshoots Union Street and Downes Lane. A short ten minute stroll from the Geelong Waterfront, tantalise your taste buds with these flavour packed options.

Felix Restaurant (pictured below) – Opened in mid-2021, this European inspired restaurant that focuses on a celebration of seafood and vegetables will delight with its stylish and draw-dropping design. Lunch Saturday and Sunday and dinner Thursday to Saturday. 9 Downes Lane.

The Arborist – Modern Australian inspired cuisine with subtle middle eastern twists, designed to share. The Arborist is built around the excelsior tree, is perfect for a cocktail in the courtyard, wine while people watching or to feast on the flavoursome offerings. Lunch and dinner Wednesday to Sunday. 75 Little Malop Street.

The Continental – Bright red umbrellas, simple décor throughout and the best local ingredients and seasonal offerings in an Italian inspired menu. Friday and Saturday lunch, Wednesday to Saturday dinner. 82 Little Malop Street.

Lipari Espresso Bar - Pasta, pasta, pasta. Down narrow Union Street you will stumble upon a Geelong institution.

Find us a local that hasn't heard of Lipari Espresso bar. We'll challenge you. Serving pasta for over 20 years. 7 days from 5pm. 10 Union Street.

Lou's Pizza & Wine - Funky New York style pizza bar opened in late 2021. Off Little Malop Street, casual and fun. Savour the thin crust base and varied topping menus. Open for dinner Wednesday to Saturday, dinner Saturday and Sunday. 1/73B Little Malop Street.

Mav's Greek Restaurant – Fresh, authentic, wholesome, homemade Greek cuisine with a combination of smaller dishes designed to share alongside a bigger, heartier fare as well as an extensive wine and cocktail list. Lunch Wednesday to Sunday, dinner Wednesday to Monday. 73A Little Malop Street.

EVERYONE HAS THE RIGHT TO BE SAFE AT HOME

NO MORE works with the community to reduce domestic and family violence across the Northern Territory. We do this through raising awareness of the issues of gender based violence and making social change by changing community attitudes and norms and promoting positive, equal and respectful relationships.

We cannot achieve our goals alone and that's why we "LINK UP" with all parts of community; men, women, boys, girls, individuals and organisations. Together we can make the biggest difference. Our goal is to identify champions of change who we can support to mobilise their own circle of influence. The more people we can educate and bring awareness to, the closer we get to eliminating domestic and family violence.

NO MORE uses a community led approach to achieve it's goals and objectives. This approach is evidenced as best practice, with the highest likelihood of sustainable success. Sport can be a key setting to empower, motivate and inspire change, on and off the field or court, using its influence to extend the principles of equality and fairness beyond the playing space. The creation of a DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ACTION PLAN (DVAP) is a way for sporting organisations, businesses and other groups to demonstrate their commitment to reducing domestic and family violence.

IMPORTS

MEET THE SEVEN SHOWCASE IMPORTS

The second Australian Women's Baseball Showcase will have an international flavour to it with seven imports set to join Australia's best in Geelong. Three players from Canada and Japan and one from the US will join the local stars across the three rosters.

Japanese star pitcher Ayami Sato headlines the international additions at the 2022 Australian Women's Baseball Showcase in Geelong.

The five-time WBSC Women's Baseball World Cup winner and three-time tournament Most Valuable Player will line up for the Adelaide Giants in the four-day event.

Sato, 32, holds multiple records in Japan's Women's Baseball League including most career complete games and most strikeouts in a season.

Pitcher Mizuki Bando and catcher Yukina Izumi will also join Sato in playing for the Giants in Geelong.

Bando, 27, pitches for Japan's national team and plays for Hanshin Tigers.

Izumi, 25, also is part of the national program in Japan. Adelaide will be managed by Japan's national women's team manager Risa Nakashimi.

Victoria Aces will have US utility Anna Kimbrell join them on home soil in Geelong.

Kimbrell has been part of Team USA's setup since 2006 after growing up playing baseball.

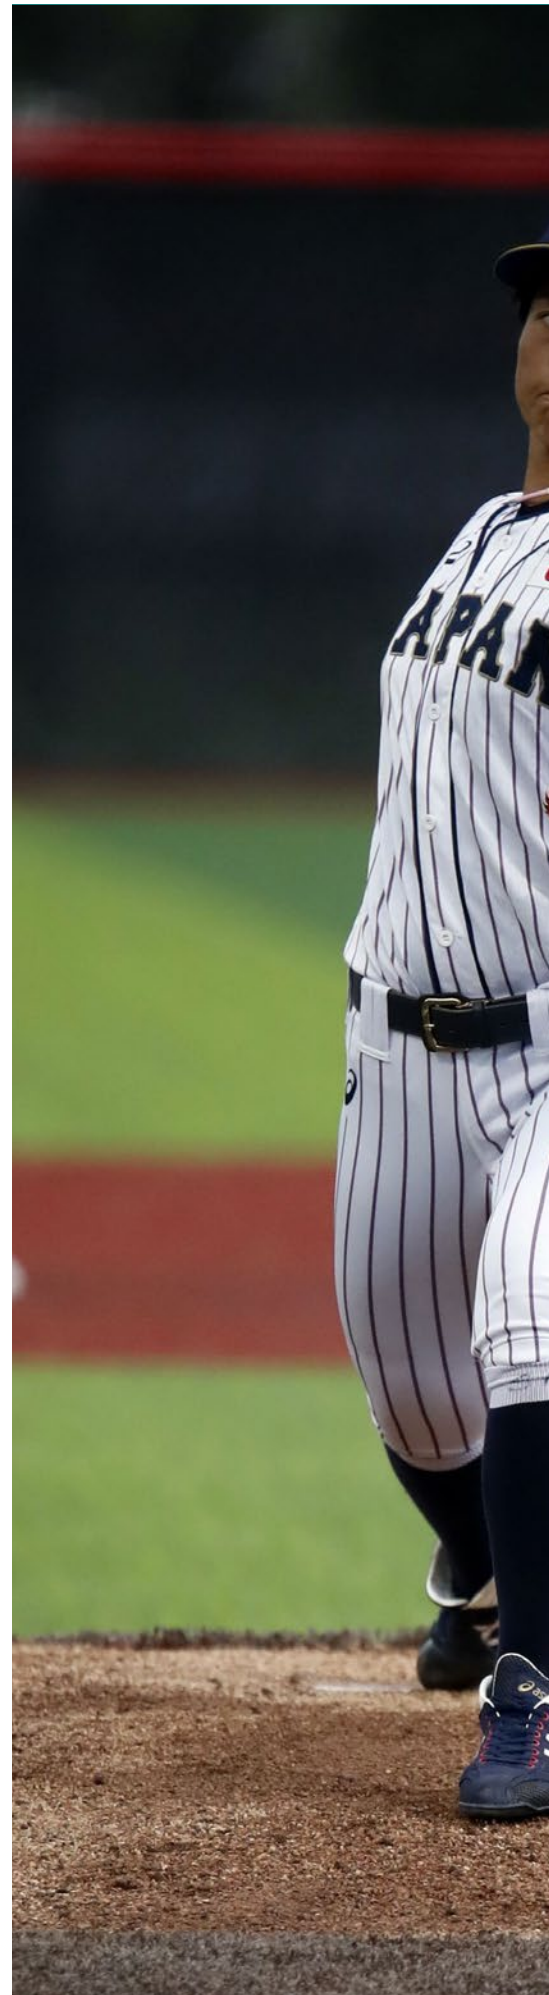

The now 31-year-old won gold at the 2015 Pan American Games.

Kimbrell has won four medals - two silver, two bronze - with the US at the Women's World Cup.

Three players from Canada will link up with the Brisbane Bandits.

Pitcher-outfielder Claire Eccles, pitcher-infielder Allison Schroder and infielder Alexane Fournier from Canada will link up with the Bandits.

It will give plenty of Australian players their first look at international players in a couple of years after the COVID-19 pandemic wiped out baseball on the global scene in that time.

For some of the young guns it will give them a glimpse of what to expect if they one day line up for the Emeralds at a World Cup.

Baseball Australia chief executive Glenn Williams said it was an exciting opportunity to build on the 2021 showcase and further engage a global audience.

“The support of the WBSC and the federations in Canada, Japan and USA is great for the Australian Women’s Showcase,” he said.

“Not only will the event provide a platform for Australia’s best to show what they can do, adding some of the best female players in the world to event will add an exciting element.

“Our national Women’s team, the Emeralds, have been starved of international competition just like everyone else so to have the chance to play alongside and compete against star international players in their own backyard will be a great opportunity.”

Under the partnership WBSC will also broadcast the showcase internationally.

The showcase is supported by the Victorian Government through its Significant Sporting Events Program. City of Greater Geelong is also supporting the event through its community events grants.

It is another step towards the launch of a professional women’s baseball league in Australia.

FEATURE

PLAYERS TO WATCH AT GEELONG SHOWCASE

Returning stars, rising youngsters, imports and some other new faces fill the rosters of the three teams at this year's Australian Women's Baseball Showcase. We've picked six local players to keep a close eye on in Geelong throughout the four days of action.

BRONWYN GELL (ACES)

Gell heads into the showcase off the back of a dominant Australian Women's Baseball Championship in Adelaide last month.

The infielder was named MVP after 11-for-18 (.611) with 11 RBIs and 10 runs scored in six opening round outings.

Gell doubled four times and drew nine walks to go with 11 stolen bases.

To top it off the Doncaster Dragon also took home the fielding award after going perfect on 19 chances in the first round and turning a double play.

GENEVIEVE BEACOM (ACES)

If you had not heard of Beacom before January that likely all changed.

The 17-year-old hit the headlines around the world after making her debut with the professional men's Melbourne Aces outfit and tossing a scoreless inning.

Beacom was an absentee at the women's nationals, instead featuring at the National Junior Camp in Canberra as part of Team Australia's WBSC U-18 Baseball World Cup preparations.

The hard-throwing Sandringham Dragons lefty featured for Adelaide Giants 12 months ago but will don Victoria's blue on the mound in Geelong.

JESS MASLIN (GIANTS)

Maslin is back for a second-straight showcase.

The infielder arrives in Geelong fresh from hitting .500 at women's nationals for South Australia.

Across seven games - including the fifth-place playoff - Maslin had 12 hits, nine RBIs and eight runs scored to play a key role for the host state.

MADDISON TABRETT (GIANTS)

Tabrett starred for Adelaide last year in the first-ever showcase, hitting .571 with a homer and eight RBIs in four games.

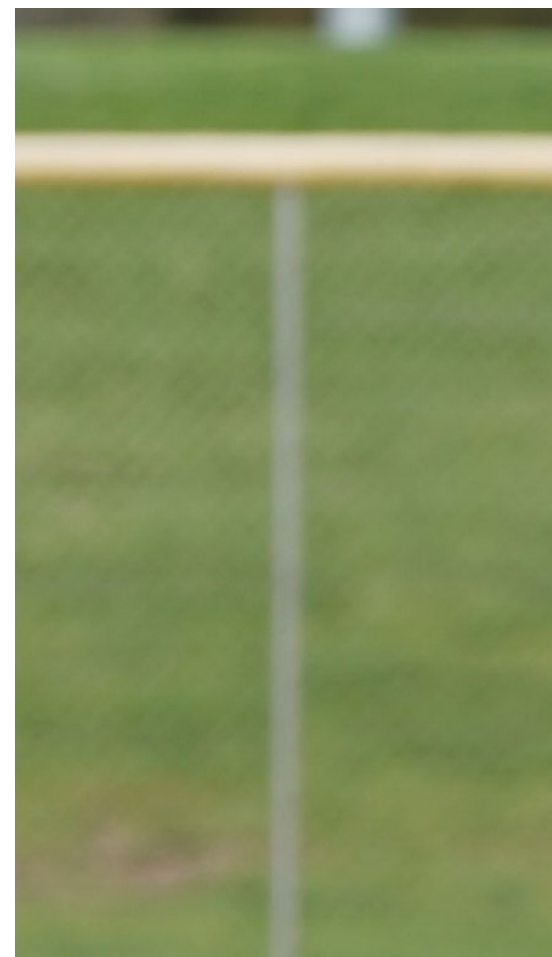

The infielder also impressed at the recent women's nationals, helping New South Wales claim gold.

Tabrett hit .600 with five RBIs and five runs scored in five pool games for NSW.

She holds the mantle of the youngest player to ever represent Australia at a World Cup and is still just 25.

KYA FOXWELL (BANDITS)

Foxwell earned a call up for her first showcase appearance following a strong showing at April's national championship in Adelaide.

The infielder led Queensland Maroon with a .529 average across all games, driving in five runs and scoring four.

It was the Runaway Bay product's first open women's event

LAURA NEADS (BANDITS)

Neads will make her second appearance in the showcase with the Bandits.

Last year the pitcher did not allow an earned run in a three-inning start on day one of the event.

At the recent Australian national titles Neads helped NSW secure gold.

Neads struck out three in two scoreless relief innings to shut the door on Victoria.
