

Experience Roles

We are looking for a team to help make the players feel like they are in the Big Leagues.

This role is perfect for somebody looking to hype up the players for a week, or for a parent / family member looking for something to do while watching their loved one play ball.

Ground Announcer

- Announce starting line-ups
- Announce players next to bat or taking the mound;
- Play music between innings (equipment supplied at event);
- Make scripted general house-keeping announcements;
- Instructions provided for use of announcing equipment;
- Other announcements as instructed

Scoreboard Attendant

- Update scoreboard on Diamond 1
 - o Batter's count;
 - o Balls & Strikes;
 - o Full Box Score;
 - o Instructions provided
- Play advertisements on scoreboard screen between innings and games where required (software and equipment supplied at event)

Director of High Fives

We're looking for people to put their name in the ring for some general roles to make the day run more smoothly. Who knows what the day could look like?! It could be:

- Running meals to scorers;
- Assisting with technical set up;
- Welcoming people, patrons and players to the ballpark;
- Assisting with the venue;
