Melbourne Ballpark, also known as the State Baseball Softball Centre, is located in Altona, 15 minutes from the Melbourne CBD. While the stadium was originally opened in 1989, upgrades took place ahead of the Aces 2012/13 season, when the team moved from the Melbourne Showgrounds to the baseball-only venue. Melbourne Ballpark and the Aces Australian Baseball League All-Star game six years in row from 2012 to 2017.

In the original Australian Baseball League, Melbourne Ballpark hosted the Melbourne Monarchs until 1998. After that, the stadium was called home by the Victoria Aces and used by Baseball Victoria for Baseball Victoria Summer League night games.

When the Aces moved to the new ballpark, many renovations were made prior to the season. These included: upgraded change rooms for the players, new corporate boxes at ground level, expanded dugouts, a new outfield fence (moved in 10m from the previous dimensions), re-leveled and re-seeded outfield grass and a new synthetic infield surface that allowed for metal cleats to be worn. While the infield and foul territory around the infield are synthetic, the pitchers mound, as well as the area surrounding home plate and each of the three bases is dirt.

Ahead of the 2019/20 season, more upgrades were made to the ballpark as led by new owners Brett and Shaun Ralph. For the Aces first seven seasons at Melbourne Ballpark, the field did not have a warning track. In October 2019, a dirt track was added in front of the outfield fence and along the grass in foul territory to the edge of the synthetic infield. Additionally, new padded seats were installed, much of the stadium was repainted and new banners were hung. A state-of-the-art sound system was also installed, along with a video board in right-centre field. After the championship season ended, the landscaping around the stadium was revamped, more padded seats were added below the press box, the party deck above first base was renovated and a new beer garden section was added down the right field line.

ABOUT LUKE

Career Highlights:

- Leftwich is entering his first season playing for the Aces, with experience of five seasons in the Philadelphia Phillies organization.
- The right-handed pitcher is just one promotion away from becoming only the second third-generation pitcher in MLB history, as his father Phil Leftwich pitched in the majors with the Angels and Tom Timmermann, Phil's birth father, pitched in MLB for the Tigers and Indians. If he reaches the majors, Luke would also be just the sixth third generation player ever in MLB.
- The 26-year-old right-hander was Philadelphia's 7th round draft pick in the 2015 MLB Draft and reached Triple-A Lehigh Valley in 2019, where he struck out 32 batters in 25.0 innings. He was teammates in Lehigh Valley with current Melbourne players Drew Anderson, Josh Tols, Gift Ngoepe and Damek Tomscha, as well as former Aces players Shane Robinson and Dylan Cozens.
- In 2016 with the Class-A Lakewood BlueClaws, he was named the South Atlantic League pitcher of the week in June and later a SAL Mid-Season All-Star.
- After a strong showing at Double-A Reading in the 2018 MiLB season, he pitched in the prestigious Arizona Fall League, a developmental league for top minor league prospects immediately after the MiLB season. In eight games and 10.1 innings for the Scottsdale Scorpions, he did not allow a run while striking out 12.
- Across 5 Minor League seasons, Leftwich has pitched in 149 games (35 starts) with 403 strikeouts in 354.2 innings. Prior to getting called up to Triple-A in 2019, he had allowed just one run in 16.2 innings in Double-A.
- The native of Ahwatukee, Arizona attended Wofford College in South Carolina for three seasons before being drafted. There, he studied accounting and pitched in 53 games over three seasons, while striking out 261 batters in 220.2 innings.

ABOUT DAN

Career Highlights:

- McGrath is entering his seventh season playing for the Aces, with experience of seven seasons in the Boston Red Sox organization.
- He returns to the Aces after a hiatus during the 2019/20 season due to a mystery illness (not undiagnosed COVID-19) and comes back as one of the most experienced pitchers in team history. His 39 games pitched are third-most in club history.
- The 26-year-old left-hander had a breakout season in 2019, as he was named a MiLB Organizational All-Star for the Red Sox after the conclusion of the season, the Double-A Eastern League's July 2019 pitcher of the month and a two-time Minor League pitcher of the week with the Double-A Portland Sea Dogs.
- In the Melbourne native's most dominant campaign in Boston's system, he posted a 7-1 record and 1.98 earned run average in 29 appearances, including 16 starts. The success earned him a non-roster invitation to Red Sox spring training in 2020 and he pitched in two games before MLB spring training ended prematurely due to the Coronavirus pandemic.

- The last two seasons in Melbourne were two of McGrath's most memorable, allowing just one earned run over 12.2 innings and 12 appearances with the Aces between the 2017/18 and 2018/19 seasons.

ABOUT DELMON

Career Highlights:

- Young is entering his third season playing for the Aces and sixth playing Winter League baseball, after a 10-year career in the Major Leagues, having most recently played in 2015 with the Baltimore Orioles and over 1,110 total MLB games between 2006 and 2015.
- The first overall pick in the 2003 MLB draft, Young was Baseball America's 2005 Minor League Player of the Year and the Double-A Southern League's Most Valuable Player with the Montgomery Biscuits that season.
- In 2007, Young hit for a .288 average with 13 home runs and 93 runs batted in with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays, finishing runner-up for the American League's Rookie of the Year Award to Boston's Dustin Pedroia.
- For Detroit in the 2012 American League Championship Series, Young hit .353 with two home runs and six RBI and was named the ALCS MVP as the Tigers swept the New York Yankees 4-0. While the Tigers were swept by the Giants in the World Series, he hit .357 over the four game and currently stands as the Detroit's all-time leader in postseason home runs with nine.
- After 10 seasons in the Majors, Young has played pro baseball in Australia, the Dominican Republic, Mexico and Venezuela.
- Last season with the Aces, Young was voted ABL hitting champion by the league's managers and scariest hitter to face by his fellow players. He led the ABL in home runs, runs batted in, slugging percentage, extra-base hits and total bases. His 42 RBI last season tied with Elliot Biddle in 2011/12 for an Aces single-season record and his 26 home runs are second-most all time by an Aces hitter.

Miscellaneous Notes:

- Young's older brother, Dmitri, was a two-time MLB All-Star and played for 13 seasons and over 1,300 games between 1996 and 2008. His sister DeAnn played college softball at Oregon State University and his father Larry was one of the United States Navy's first African American F-14 fighter pilots, serving in the Vietnam War.
